

THE POWDER HORN BLAST

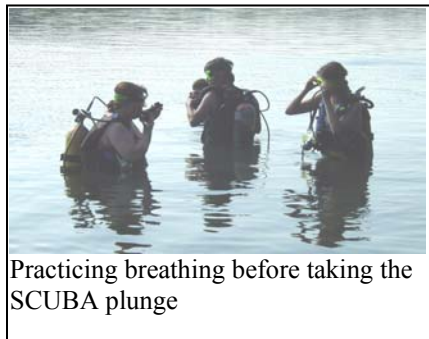

Powder Horn Frequently Asked Questions

Who may attend?

Any Venturing Leader, or Boy Scout Leader who has completed all the training for their position.

Do I have to do everything?

No, participants are not required to participate in every physical activity.

Practicing breathing before taking the SCUBA plunge

Participants will not be asked to do anything which they feel uncomfortable doing. To earn the Powder Horn, participants must be present for all training sessions.

What activities are going to be offered?

The activities are based on the requirements for the Ranger Award. The course covers all of the core requirements and as many activities for which we can find consultants.

Preparing for Trap Shooting

Do I have to attend both weekends?

Yes. This is too much fun to pack into a three day weekend! In order to cover all the activities in the Ranger program, we will need two full three day weekends.

Why are they at different locations?

Each camp has different facilities. This course is sponsored by the two different Councils, and we are holding a part of the course at camps owned by each Council. (They actually border each other!)
