

Christopher Vill, 20, Eagle Scout, lifelong Ridgefielder

Wednesday, 23 June 2010 05:58

Christopher D. Vill, a lifelong Ridgefielder and an Eagle Scout, died on Sunday, June 20, at Danbury Hospital as a result of injuries sustained in a car accident. He was 20 years old son of Andrew and Angela Moreau Vill.

A lifelong resident of Ridgefield, Mr. Vill was born in Danbury on May 23, 1990. He attended Ridgefield schools and graduated from Ridgefield High School in the Class of 2008. He attended Norwalk Community College.

Active in the scouting program, he attained the rank of Eagle Scout with the Boy Scouts of America, Troop 49. For his Eagle service project, he restored a canon at the Danbury Military Museum.

An assembly technician with the Barden Corporation of Danbury, he previously was employed part-time at Limestone Service Station in Ridgefield.

He enjoyed cars, fishing, camping, the outdoors and cooking.

"He was a generous and loving son, brother and friend," his family said. "His genuine personality and warm smile touched all who knew him."

He was a member of St. Elizabeth Seton Parish, Ridgefield.

Besides his parents, Mr. Vill is survived by his two sisters, Catherine Vill and Joanna Vill; two brothers, Andrew Vill and Joseph Vill, all of Ridgefield; his paternal grandfather, Andrew Vill of Ridgefield; his maternal grandparents, Armand and Yvonne Moreau of Danbury; as well as many aunts, uncles and cousins. He was predeceased by his paternal grandmother, Angela Vill.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated on Monday, June 28, at 10 a.m. in St. Elizabeth Seton Church, 520 Ridgebury Rd., Ridgefield.

Burial will follow in St. Mary Cemetery, Ridgefield.

The family will receive friends in the Kane Funeral Home, 25 Catoonah St., on Sunday from 4 to 7.

The recitation of the Rosary will take place at 4:15 p.m.

Contributions may be made to St. Elizabeth Seton Church in his memory.
